

CARRIAGEWORKS PRESENTS

WRONG PROM: CHICAGO

WHERE GOOD MUSIC AND DAGGY DANCING COLLIDE
Presented in association with Urban Dance Centre

Sydney's favourite mass dance class for adults will hang up its dancing shoes next month, with CarriageWorks announcing that Wrong Prom: Chicago on Wednesday 25 August will be the last Wrong Prom ever.

With glitz, glamour and All That Jazz, the last Wrong Prom will transform CarriageWorks into Broadway, complete with Razzle Dazzle, chorus-lines and the magical showtunes of Bob Fosse and Fred Ebb's Chicago.

Hosted by the very sexy Veronica Beattie (a Can Can dancer in Baz Luhrmann's Moulin Rouge) and with DJ Sveta spinning the show-stopping tunes, Wrong Prom: Chicago promises to teach its guests some murderous last moves and to paint the town red in a final celebration.

The theme is a fitting finale to the event series which has given over 4000 Sydneysiders the opportunity to embrace the spotlight over the last two years ... even if it's just for one night!

As always, tickets are selling fast and patrons are urged to purchase their tickets now for the last chance to experience the Wrong Prom phenomenon!

"Everyone who comes to Wrong Prom leaves with a huge smile on their face and a unique arts experience under their belts. It's not every day that an arts centre turns into a mass dance class brimming with people who would never normally learn a full routine or dance like maniacs anywhere outside of their own living room. That's why we love Wrong Prom - it brings thousands of people together to experience the arts in a left of centre way and encourages people to try something they wouldn't normally do. And it's a whole lot of fun!"

We are very proud of what CarriageWorks has achieved through Wrong Prom and it's bittersweet to be coming to the end of a good thing, but we are looking to build on the success of Wrong Prom with future programming that engages audiences and community in unique ways. Stay tuned..."
